

Award-winning Music and Books from Jim Gill

Jim Gill is a musician, an author, and, perhaps most importantly, a child development specialist. His musical recordings and picture books have received honors and awards from, among other organizations, the American Library Association. Jim completed his graduate studies in child development at the Erikson Institute of Chicago with a special emphasis on the study of play. For this reason, each of Jim's recordings and books is created as an opportunity for playful interactions between a child and a caring adult.

Jim travels throughout the country speaking to early childhood educators about the role of play in children's lives. He also leads family concerts with his banjo, his band, and with symphony orchestras. His latest book, A Soup Opera, is featured in a concert for children that Jim created especially for symphony orchestras.
